

Voices Black Theatre Ensemble

Cast and crew Speaking In Tongues

Friday, Feb 17, 6:30 pm | Saturday Feb 18, 2 pm & 7 pm

Speaking In Tongues: African Nova Scotian Storytellers

Winner Fringe Hit Award, 2016 Atlantic Fringe Festival

Bus Stop Theatre, 2203 Gottingen St

Four prominent African Nova Scotian storytellers bring tales from African Nova Scotia community, history and family life to the stage. The emphasis is on humour but each tale reveals important truths about life in Black communities across the province.

Performers

Wanda Robson (Viola Desmond's sister) Aunt May, My Mother and Clarke Gable

Nathan Simmons (East Preston) – The Cape Breton Maxwell's

Vetty Thomas (North Preston) - Natal Day, Turkey Nightmare

David Woods (Dartmouth) - Aunt Nellie, The Crazy | Tracey Grouse - musical accompaniment

For the whole family...not to be missed!

Admission $15 adults | $10 students and seniors – Tickets at door

Info p 902 430-3560 | voices@banns.ca | www.banns.ca

Presented by 2017 ReFringed Festival - Atlantic Fringe Festival Society performance